Eastern District of Michigan

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

V.

Juan Antonio Herrera

*DefendantORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

Case Number: 07-20288-03

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Part I—Findings of Fact

- ☐ (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a ☐ federal offense ☐ state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is
- ☐ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
- ☐ an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.
- ☐ an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____.*
- ☐ a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.
- ☐ (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.
- ☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the ☐ date of conviction ☐ release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1).
- ☐ (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Alternative Findings (A)

- ☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense
- ☐ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _____.
- ☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).
- ☐ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

Alternative Findings (B)

- ☒ (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
- ☒ (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by ☒ clear and convincing evidence ☐ a preponderance of the evidence that

This is a presumption case. Defendant Herrera is married with two children and is a resident of San Juan, Texas, with no ties to this district. He is 25 years old. For 18 years he lived in Mexico, where his mother and brother still reside. He is self employed and is in the business of buying, selling and repairing motor homes in Texas. He required the use of an interpreter in Court. On April 26, 2005 he was charged with possession of marijuana (2000 pounds). Defendant forfeited his $40,000 bond after failing to appear for a scheduled court date. (CONTINUE ON PAGE 2)

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

He is charged in the instant case with conspiracy to distribute and possession with the intent to distribute more than 195 bundles of bulk marijuana wrapped in cellophane. While under surveillance, defendant was seen participating in an operation physically unloading and distributing the 195 bales of marijuana on June 05, 2007 in the rear of a business located at 17901 Huron Park Drive. Nothing was presented in open court by way of argument or evidence that rebuts the presumption. This defendant has fled while on bond in the state of Texas. Defendant poses a significant danger to the community. There are no conditions of bond that would assure the defendant's appearance in this district or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.
